

WILD CALL OF YOGIS FOR BOB.

HON. ANTI-PASS THE PURE SOULS
CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS.Two Men in Brooklyn Also Will Support
Him, including Sheriff Fishery—life has a threat out of Town following
Platform is: "Clean Up the House."

The Hon. Robert "Anti-pass" Baker is going to clean up Congress, sweep it out, mop it, scrub it and thoroughly purify it. He announced it yesterday in a circular which calls on the people to support their champion and take a full out of the Money Devil. For seven months not a word of hope has come to the people from the Brooklyn patriot. Some folks may have imagined that Bob Anti-pass was crushed and resigned to permanent silence when Dock Commissioner Bengel slapped him on the wrist last February for slandering Brooklyn's Bird of Freedom and five cent fare, but it was not so. Mr. Baker was meditating on his and the people's wrongs and drawing up a new declaration of independence.

His new platform incorporates the sublime principles of Yoga, to which the great Anti-pass became a convert more than a year ago. Persons who join Mr. Baker's new party must become even as himself and his teacher, Swami Vivekananda, and study the books Hathapadipika, Paprika and other Hott Stuff. Among the planks of the platform which Robert Anti-pass unrolled yesterday are concentration of soul, religious observance, veracity, avoidance of theft, chastity, contentment, muttering of Vedie hymns and devoted reliance on Om. One of the salient principles of Yoga Mr. Baker failed to incorporate in his platform is regulation of the breath.

More office or party puff will not be the rewards of Mr. Baker's followers. Faithful adherence to the principles he sets forth will lead them eventually to insensibility to heat or cold, pleasure or pain. They will have a knowledge of the past and future. They will understand the speech of animals, even their thoughts. They will know all that is going on in other worlds.

Mr. Baker's circular announced yesterday that pure souls all over the country are calling on him to gird up his loins and make the race for Congress as an independent candidate in the Sixth district. Apparently the pure souled of Brooklyn are not earning their money with the money, since the "appeal," which was issued yesterday, is signed by only two Brooklyn men, including Sheriff Fishery, looking for a job in the County Jail. A little thing like lack of support at home doesn't worry the great Yogi, since Chicago is sailing for him, Boston is insisting demanding that he run, Cincinnati joining in the patriotic chorus, Minneapolis chipping in and even far Kansas City (Kan.) beseeching him to hurl his glove full in the face of the sneering Money Devil.

Carping ones who were so foolish as to grin at Mr. Baker's patriotic pronouncement yesterday asked why the names of Senator Patrick Henry McCarthy, Comptroller Metz or even Five Cent Bird do not appear at the end of the appeal, but Mr. Baker's fellow Yogi proudly answered that he was above such alliances—although, said they, if the Democratic party in Brooklyn would purify itself and subscribe to Mr. Baker's principles he might—only might—understand—consent to run as the regular Democratic candidate.

Tim Woodruff might see a light, they thought, and ask Mr. Baker to be the Republican candidate. In that event he would consider whether the Republican party was worthy of him. Anyway, he was going to run and when he was out as he certainly would, he was going to give the House a bigger cleaning than Bob La Follette intended to give the Senate. Among the great names which Mr. Baker proudly presents as urging him to run are Tom Johnson of Cleveland, Mayor Dempsey of Cincinnati, Mayor Dunne of New York, Mayor Rose of Kansas City, William Lloyd Garrison of Boston, George Fred Williams of the same town, Henry George, Jr., of New York, and William Marion Reedy of St. Louis. "Clean up the House," certainly needs cleaning. It must be freed from the "Money Devil" which now directs it. The tribune all over the country have looked far and wide seeking a Hercules for the job. These are the inspiring words of the appeal:

"Yes! Twenty men could clean up the House! Perhaps a less number could do it. But where are the honest, fearless fighting men to perform this tremendous task? To the country! The Fifty-ninth Congress had none such. None of its members displayed marked courage. Democrats as well as Republicans were afraid to speak a murmur to the will of their Chief—the Speaker. While every Congress has some honest men, there was but one—Robert Baker—in the Fifty-ninth Congress of whom it could be truly said that he was a fearless fighter. To his courage is to be attributed the large advance already made, both in public and private, toward the complete extirpation of the insidiously corrupting railroad pass from our politics."

Only the weakness of Judge Parker says the appeal, and the active hostility of monopolistic interests beat Baker last year. The hero was dragged down by the candidate for President and the clawing of the Money Devil. The enemies of the people will try to do up Bob again, the circular points out, but it won't go through. Why? Because they know Mr. Baker and know Mr. Baker for the Galahad that he is. The people are waking up and calling for Baker.

It takes hard cash, though, to make the Money Devil and the circular makes a fervent appeal for campaign grease. At least $2,500 is needed. Hurry up and send it in. Bob needs it.

Some of Mr. Baker's friends thought yesterday that he would dicker for the support of Hearst, but the Hearstites in the sixth district seem to be particularly interested in Mr. Baker's candidacy and, anyway, what did he want to but in for? There was hardly enough to go around as it was. Mr. Baker's friends indignantly denied that he was begging for anybody's support.

"It's for the people," said they, "and the people are for him."

WESTCHESTER ROAD HELD UP.

Injunction Stops Viaduct Building in Front of Durr's Property.

Supreme Court Justice Bischoff granted yesterday to Frederick G. Durr an injunction restraining the New York, Westchester and Boston Railway Company from proceeding with the construction of a viaduct in front of Durr's property at Hunt avenue and Bear Swamp road, in the Bronx.

Durr, who has brought suit for $15,000 damages as well as for the injunction, says that in the course of its construction the company, without warning or application to him, began to build a viaduct eight feet high in front of his home. The viaduct, he says, interferes with his easements of light, air and access, and he denies the right of the company to build any such obstruction without his consent. The company replied that condemnation proceedings were already begun and that he would be compensated for any damages Justice Bischoff holds that the company's action is wholly illegal and that as there is no issue of the public convenience at stake, the work must be stopped at once and the obstruction already existing must be removed if Durr objects to it.

Parish House for Corpus Christi Church.

Plans have been filed with Building Superintendent Murphy for a new three-story and basement parish house with a bell building attached, to be built at 520 to 530 West 122nd street for the Roman Catholic Church of Corpus Christi, of which the Rev. John H. Dooley is pastor. It is to have a frontage of 60 feet and a depth of 30 feet and a total area of 1,800 sq. ft. with Bedford limestone and terra cotta. The building is to cost $45,000.

IN SOCIETY.

The annual ball at Tunedo, always in the lead in the line of autumn social festivities, will be given on Friday night, October 23, in the large circular ballroom of the clubhouse. It will be preceded as usual by many dinners at the cottage and clubs. Dancing will begin at 10 o'clock, and probably the cotillon will be led by Anne Tuck French, the leader of the last couple of seasons. The favors are always uncommonly pretty and the ball is apt to be a late affair, as the dancing is resumed after the midnight supper.

There was a dinner and dance last night at Castlewood, the country place of Mrs. Eggle Brugiere and her son, Louis Brugiere, near Newport. It was the final festivity of the season and the last gathering of fashionable people with the exception of the coming Sands-Blight wedding on October 11. Mr. Brugiere has been for several seasons one of the eligible bachelors of Newport set. He and his mother will sail for Europe on Tuesday week, October 2, and will probably be absent all winter.

Henry Ives Cobb, Jr., son of Henry Ives Cobb, will give his bachelor dinner this week in anticipation of his wedding with Miss Caroline Postlethwaite in Washington on Tuesday week, October 2. Miss Janet Fish of New York will be one of the bridesmaids, and the others will include the Misses Ingalls, Cincinnati, Constance Bacon of Boston, Grace Bell, Carolyn Huff, Alice Parker, Edith Sanger and Ethel Seckendorff of Washington. The latter has attended as bridesmaid at other smart nuptial events, including that of Miss Parker, daughter of Col. James Parker of the army, and a young officer at Newport last June. She is a daughter of Count Seckendorff, and her wedding with Fleming Newbold will be one of the notable Washington affairs a little later on.

Mr. Cobb will have among his dinner guests at the Harvard Club Cleveland Cobb and Candor Cobb, his brothers; Blair Fairchild, Wendell P. Blagden, Julian L. Penbody, Franklin Abbott, Marmaduke Tilden, Jr., W. P. Watson and James W. B. Fay of St. Louis. Mr. Cobb's father was supervising architect of the United States Treasury. The wedding will be celebrated in the afternoon in St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church and will be attended by numerous New York relatives and friends as well as Washingtonians of the fashionable set now at home.

Henry Ives Cobb and his bride will after a wedding journey make their home with the latter's mother, Mrs. William M. Postlethwaite, whose residence on New Hampshire avenue is between the Leiter and Whitmore houses. She is a widow and her husband was chaplain in the army and quartered for a long time at West Point, where she naturally became acquainted with officers of high rank and their families. She is considered one of the most ambitious women at the capital and is rich, having made good investment of property left her by her father. Her daughter being an only child she long since gave out that she would consent to her marriage only on the understanding that she should continue to make her home with her. Miss Carol Postlethwaite, as she is called, is rather a pretty girl with brown hair and is always beautifully dressed.

Mr. and Mrs. James Otis Post will make their home in New York after their wedding journey. The bride, who was Miss Dorothy Miller, is a daughter of Commander Jacob W. Miller, U. S. N., retired. She looked very pretty in her white satin princess gown and voluminous lace veil at the wedding on Thursday afternoon in St. Peter's Church, Morristown, N. J. Mr. Post, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Post, was attended by William F. Beekman as best man.

Dinners were given on Monday by Mrs. Henry Barton Jacobs and Mrs. Phillips Allen Clark at their Newport cottages. Mrs. John Thompson Spencer and Mrs. William H. Sands had elaborate floral decorations at their dinners on Tuesday night. Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Mrs. John H. Vanderbilt, Mrs. Henry Barton Jacobs were among those giving dinners on Wednesday. Mrs. J. Fred Pierson, Jr., gave a dinner last Wednesday night. Mrs. May Brady gave one of the Friday dinners.

Countess Lillian Hoyos and Countess Camilla Hoyos of Austria were the guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Choate at Lenox. Lady Gordon Lennox, who has visited with friends here frequently, arrived some days since from England. The Marquis de Casa Calderon came over last week. Countess de Castelnau and Baron and Baroness de Kappen have been sojourning in Lenox. The Countess de Kappen, formerly Henry Herbert, will remain during the autumn with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Wilson. She was in town to see her son, Michael and Henry Herbert, who is to Eton, sailing for England on Tuesday. It is some days since Count and Countess de Kappen and Countess de Kappen have been sojourning in Lenox. The Countess de Kappen, formerly Henry Herbert, will remain during the autumn with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Wilson. She was in town to see her son, Michael and Henry Herbert, who is to Eton, sailing for England on Tuesday. It is some days since Count and Countess de Kappen and Countess de Kappen have been sojourning in Lenox.

Only the weakness of Judge Parker says the appeal, and the active hostility of monopolistic interests beat Baker last year. The hero was dragged down by the candidate for President and the clawing of the Money Devil. The enemies of the people will try to do up Bob again, the circular points out, but it won't go through. Why? Because they know Mr. Baker and know Mr. Baker for the Galahad that he is. The people are waking up and calling for Baker.

It takes hard cash, though, to make the Money Devil and the circular makes a fervent appeal for campaign grease. At least $2,500 is needed. Hurry up and send it in. Bob needs it.

Some of Mr. Baker's friends thought yesterday that he would dicker for the support of Hearst, but the Hearstites in the sixth district seem to be particularly interested in Mr. Baker's candidacy and, anyway, what did he want to but in for? There was hardly enough to go around as it was. Mr. Baker's friends indignantly denied that he was begging for anybody's support.

"It's for the people," said they, "and the people are for him."

WESTCHESTER ROAD HELD UP.

Injunction Stops Viaduct Building in Front of Durr's Property.

Supreme Court Justice Bischoff granted yesterday to Frederick G. Durr an injunction restraining the New York, Westchester and Boston Railway Company from proceeding with the construction of a viaduct in front of Durr's property at Hunt avenue and Bear Swamp road, in the Bronx.

Durr, who has brought suit for $15,000 damages as well as for the injunction, says that in the course of its construction the company, without warning or application to him, began to build a viaduct eight feet high in front of his home. The viaduct, he says, interferes with his easements of light, air and access, and he denies the right of the company to build any such obstruction without his consent. The company replied that condemnation proceedings were already begun and that he would be compensated for any damages Justice Bischoff holds that the company's action is wholly illegal and that as there is no issue of the public convenience at stake, the work must be stopped at once and the obstruction already existing must be removed if Durr objects to it.

Parish House for Corpus Christi Church.

Plans have been filed with Building Superintendent Murphy for a new three-story and basement parish house with a bell building attached, to be built at 520 to 530 West 122nd street for the Roman Catholic Church of Corpus Christi, of which the Rev. John H. Dooley is pastor. It is to have a frontage of 60 feet and a depth of 30 feet and a total area of 1,800 sq. ft. with Bedford limestone and terra cotta. The building is to cost $45,000.

will soon return from their wedding journey and will take up their abode at the Belmont Hotel until the dwelling which will be their future home is completed. They are going away again to give the blue broadcloth was particularly pretty.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Lehr will go abroad for the winter. They have arranged to pass next summer at Newport, having already rented Arleigh, the place they have occupied the last few months. Mr. Lehr has been one of Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish's automobile party touring the White Mountains during the week. Mrs. Lehr is visiting her mother, Mrs. Joseph Drexel, at her country place near Philadelphia and it is likely that her son, Delbert, will continue his studies at the school in Pennsylvania where he has been for some seasons.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick A. Valentine will soon return to their home here at Park avenue and Thirty-fifth street. They passed the summer at Lake Okauchow, Wis., where they have a splendid establishment built by Mrs. Valentine's former husband, the late Mr. Armour, whose only son, now in years of the estate of the extremely wealthy uncle of the town. Mrs. Valentine has two young children by her present husband.

Mahlon, Alonso W. Sands of London, whose wedding with Miss Evelyn Blight will be celebrated at Newport on October 11, has been in town during the last week. Miss Blight's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Payne Thompson, will be of the Altes. The latter, in winter, having rented the Hottis H. Runwell cottage there. Mr. Sands, who is very rich, has presented some steps diamonds ornaments to his bride-elect. Neither of his parents is living. His father was Mahlon Sands.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldorf Astor are now en route to England, having sailed on Friday after a stay of two months on this side, passed chiefly at Isleboro, Me. Mrs. Astor, who has been somewhat delicate since taking a severe cold prior to her marriage, visited her sister, Mrs. Monrose Perkins, in Richmond just before sailing and both she and her husband were with her father, Charles D. Langhorne, at his home, Littleton, in Albemarle county, Va., for some little time. Mr. and Mrs. Astor will probably pass the winter on the Continent. Mrs. Astor's son will go to school in England.

Philadelphia girls are bewailing that one of the most eligible of their beaux, Anthony J. Drexel Paul, is to absent for some time to come. Mr. Paul sailed for Europe with his father, James W. Paul, who is a brother of the late Mrs. Waldorf Astor, on September 15. He was graduated from Harvard last June and is going to pass the winter in India tiger hunting, and will return this time twelve months. He is a grandchild of the late Anthony J. Drexel, who left him $1,000,000. Miss Mary Paul, his sister, came in for a like legacy, and during her long minority there has been a rolling up of the principal. She made good investment of property left her by education completed on the other side. Mr. Paul went over to see his daughter, and he will not introduce her until another winter. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Drexel, who were in-law and daughter of Mr. Paul, who were in Newport for the summer, have entertained New York friends during the last week at their country place, Woodcrest, Radnor, Pa.

Cards are here for the wedding of Miss Margaret Elwood and William White of New York, to take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Elwood at South Orange, N. J., next Wednesday afternoon, also for that of Miss Mabel Simms and George L. Sayen, Jr., on the same day in St. Philip's Church, Philadelphia.

Miss Helen Ernst is one of the attractive and rich Washington maidens who will pass the winter in New York. An aunt who lived in Boston left her a million some years since. She is well known socially here and abroad and is a daughter of Gen. Oswald Ernst, who was for some years in command at West Point and is now with the Panama Commission. Mrs. Ernst and Miss Ernst will devote two weeks to Mrs. William Morton Grinnell, formerly Miss Beatie Ernst, the loss of whose husband suddenly last winter was a great affliction. Having sold her house on the son avenue meanwhile, she will live in an apartment hotel on her return, with her little children, from the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Sands, son and daughter in law of Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, were at St. Moritz last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Livingston Stevens, will locate here a couple of weeks hence, when they return from their bridal jaunt. Both are New Yorkers, though their recent wedding was celebrated at Greenwich. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyndon H. Stevens, were still at their summer home.

The wedding of Miss Annie W. Willett and Samuel Roosevelt Overbridge will be celebrated next Tuesday at St. James's Church, Skaneateles, N. Y. The bride, who will wear a costume of white satin with lace, tulle and orange blossoms, will be attended by the Misses Marion Willett, her sister, and Margaret Shook of New York, Marion Hitchcock of Brooklyn, and Miss Daisy Turner of Chicago as bridesmaids. Frank Overbridge will assist his brother as best man and William H. Willett, George Carter De Forest Hildreth, Rutgers Jewett of New York, James T. Terry of Brooklyn and Arthur Merryweather of Cleveland will be ushers. After the ceremony Mrs. Joseph W. Willett, whose town residence is at 32 East Fifty-sixth street, will give a bridal breakfast at her country place, the Bowdiers.

Cora, Countess of Stafford, is still sojourning with her mother, Mrs. Smith, at Ballston Spa, N. Y., and has visiting her. Mrs. William Pollock, Lady Stafford's sister, will visit her mother, Mrs. Pollock, at Beechwood within a day or two. Mrs. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Wilson, will visit her mother, Mrs. Pollock, at Beechwood within a day or two. Mrs. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Wilson, will visit her mother, Mrs. Pollock, at Beechwood within a day or two. Mrs. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Wilson, will visit her mother, Mrs. Pollock, at Beechwood within a day or two.

The expedition is that James Hazen Hyde will arrive here in time to attend the Home Show. His mother, Mrs. Hyde, has returned from Saratoga, and his sister, Mrs. Ripley, and her daughter, Miss Anna Ripley, will be in town for the winter. Mr. Hyde was much missed socially last season, being one of the few bachelors who entertain to any extent. Since Miss Ripley made her debut a couple of seasons since she has taken no part in festive functions, owing to mourning for her father, the late Sydney Dillon Ripley. She will this winter, no doubt, be seen at all the parties.

The wedding of Miss Bertha W. Rechenbach and Mr. John H. Vanderbilt will be celebrated next Tuesday at St. James's Church, Skaneateles, N. Y. The bride, who will wear a costume of white satin with lace, tulle and orange blossoms, will be attended by the Misses Marion Willett, her sister, and Margaret Shook of New York, Marion Hitchcock of Brooklyn, and Miss Daisy Turner of Chicago as bridesmaids. Frank Overbridge will assist his brother as best man and William H. Willett, George Carter De Forest Hildreth, Rutgers Jewett of New York, James T. Terry of Brooklyn and Arthur Merryweather of Cleveland will be ushers. After the ceremony Mrs. Joseph W. Willett, whose town residence is at 32 East Fifty-sixth street, will give a bridal breakfast at her country place, the Bowdiers.

The expedition is that James Hazen Hyde will arrive here in time to attend the Home Show. His mother, Mrs. Hyde, has returned from Saratoga, and his sister, Mrs. Ripley, and her daughter, Miss Anna Ripley, will be in town for the winter. Mr. Hyde was much missed socially last season, being one of the few bachelors who entertain to any extent. Since Miss Ripley made her debut a couple of seasons since she has taken no part in festive functions, owing to mourning for her father, the late Sydney Dillon Ripley. She will this winter, no doubt, be seen at all the parties.

The expedition is that James Hazen Hyde will arrive here in time to attend the Home Show. His mother, Mrs. Hyde, has returned from Saratoga, and his sister, Mrs. Ripley, and her daughter, Miss Anna Ripley, will be in town for the winter. Mr. Hyde was much missed socially last season, being one of the few bachelors who entertain to any extent. Since Miss Ripley made her debut a couple of seasons since she has taken no part in festive functions, owing to mourning for her father, the late Sydney Dillon Ripley. She will this winter, no doubt, be seen at all the parties.

The expedition is that James Hazen Hyde will arrive here in time to attend the Home Show. His mother, Mrs. Hyde, has returned from Saratoga, and his sister, Mrs. Ripley, and her daughter, Miss Anna Ripley, will be in town for the winter. Mr. Hyde was much missed socially last season, being one of the few bachelors who entertain to any extent. Since Miss Ripley made her debut a couple of seasons since she has taken no part in festive functions, owing to mourning for her father, the late Sydney Dillon Ripley. She will this winter, no doubt, be seen at all the parties.

The expedition is that James Hazen Hyde will arrive here in time to attend the Home Show. His mother, Mrs. Hyde, has returned from Saratoga, and his sister, Mrs. Ripley, and her daughter, Miss Anna Ripley, will be in town for the winter. Mr. Hyde was much missed socially last season, being one of the few bachelors who entertain to any extent. Since Miss Ripley made her debut a couple of seasons since she has taken no part in festive functions, owing to mourning for her father, the late Sydney Dillon Ripley. She will this winter, no doubt, be seen at all the parties.

The expedition is that James Hazen Hyde will arrive here in time to attend the Home Show. His mother, Mrs. Hyde, has returned from Saratoga, and his sister, Mrs. Ripley, and her daughter, Miss Anna Ripley, will be in town for the winter. Mr. Hyde was much missed socially last season, being one of the few bachelors who entertain to any extent. Since Miss Ripley made her debut a couple of seasons since she has taken no part in festive functions, owing to mourning for her father, the late Sydney Dillon Ripley. She will this winter, no doubt, be seen at all the parties.

The expedition is that James Hazen Hyde will arrive here in time to attend the Home Show. His mother, Mrs. Hyde, has returned from Saratoga, and his sister, Mrs. Ripley, and her daughter, Miss Anna Ripley, will be in town for the winter. Mr. Hyde was much missed socially last season, being one of the few bachelors who entertain to any extent. Since Miss Ripley made her debut a couple of seasons since she has taken no part in festive functions, owing to mourning for her father, the late Sydney Dillon Ripley. She will this winter, no doubt, be seen at all the parties.

The expedition is that James Hazen Hyde will arrive here in time to attend the Home Show. His mother, Mrs. Hyde, has returned from Saratoga, and his sister, Mrs. Ripley, and her daughter, Miss Anna Ripley, will be in town for the winter. Mr. Hyde was much missed socially last season, being one of the few bachelors who entertain to any extent. Since Miss Ripley made her debut a couple of seasons since she has taken no part in festive functions, owing to mourning for her father, the late Sydney Dillon Ripley. She will this winter, no doubt, be seen at all the parties.

The expedition is that James Hazen Hyde will arrive here in time to attend the Home Show. His mother, Mrs. Hyde, has returned from Saratoga, and his sister, Mrs. Ripley, and her daughter, Miss Anna Ripley, will be in town for the winter. Mr. Hyde was much missed socially last season, being one of the few bachelors who entertain to any extent. Since Miss Ripley made her debut a couple of seasons since she has taken no part in festive functions, owing to mourning for her father, the late Sydney Dillon Ripley. She will this winter, no doubt, be seen at all the parties.

Hackett, Carhart & Co.

Broadway, at Thirteenth Street

Selections From an Impressive
Showing of Tailored Garments

In the New Fall Models for Women and Misses

Long Covert Paddock Coats $19.75

A graceful 50-inch long fly front covert cloth coat, notch collar and lapels and paddock back.

Coats of Mannish Mixtures $17.50

Checks and mixtures form the patterns. The model is double breasted, half fitted or full back, collar inlaid with velvet patch pockets.

Tailored Suits of Broadcloth $39.50

The broadcloth is imported and of an exquisite quality, in black, blue, brown, green and grey. The coat is a half fitted effect elaborated with velvet and embroidery. Fancy 3/4 sleeves. Plaited panel skirt braided.

Tailored Suits at $25

In cheviot and broadcloth. Colors—brown, black, blue, elephant gray. Coat in corset effect 22 or 24 inches long, lined with Skinnors' guaranteed satin. Collar and cuffs of inlaid stitched velvet. Plaited panel circular skirt.

Skirts in Autumn Models $7.50

Full double box plaited skirts of serge in blue and black together with chiffon Panama skirts in blue and black, having inverted plaits and finished with straps.

Junior Tailored Suits $18.50

Large plaid Norfolk Suits in green, red, brown and blue tones, jacket satin lined. Full skirted skirt. Sizes 13, 15 and 17 and for small women.

Girls' Dresses at $8.50

Russian blouse models, full plaited skirt, yoke of braided white broadcloth. Of undressed serge in blue, red and brown. Sizes 6 to 14.

Hackett, Carhart & Co.

SPECIAL VALUES

In high grade imported and domestic worsted suitings in Egyptian Browns and Scotch Plaids; also a line of Gun Metal Stripes and Plaid Overcoating. Suit or overcoat to order, $25.00.

Our Tuxedo Suits at $35.00 and Full Dress, $40.00, are made of English Drapery, silk lined and faced. The values cannot be duplicated elsewhere.

Let us mail samples of these materials with our illustrated booklet, "The Veil of Fashion"; it will prove interesting reading.

ARNHEIM,

Broadway & Ninth Street.

berg and Edward Hungerford will take place next Saturday morning at 11 o'clock in the Lutheran Church of the Holy Trinity, Central Park West. The bride is a daughter of Charles Bechenberg, and the bridegroom formerly resided at White Plains, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. O. Field are in Canada on a hunting trip. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney returned from Newport last Thursday to their country place at Bowdoin, L. I. Mr. and Mrs. James Steyer, who summered abroad and arrived home on Thursday, will pass the early autumn at their country house at Scarborough, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. George F. Baker, who arrived from Europe on Friday, have gone to their country cottage. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wilkie, who have returned from Europe, have arranged to pass the winter at Tuxedo. Mrs. Helene Melling, sail from the other side for home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Thebaud are expected home this week after a few months of Continental travel and will locate for the autumn at Hillside, their beautiful country place near White Plains, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Thebaud, who entertain in lavish and delightful fashion, celebrate each autumn their wedding anniversary. The next occasion will be the 16th.

Mrs. Astor, now said to be improving in health at her Newport residence, has not given any big entertainment for the last year. The most recent was the musicale following a dinner given after she returned in the late summer last year from Europe. She had not begun her usual series of dinners last winter when she gave up her accustomed early January ball on account of the death of her son, Mr. H. H. H. Astor. Mrs. Astor was particularly active socially some three seasons since, when she began at her town house in the autumn by giving a big dinner for the Duchess of Roxburghe, now the Dowager Duchess, then here for the wedding of her son with Miss Goelet.

Miss Gladys Vanderbilt and her cousins, Harold B. Vanderbilt and Miss Ruth, Vanderbilt Twombly, are the three unmarried members of the Vanderbilt family. Miss Twombly is now with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. McK. Twombly, at their country establishment at Madison, N. J. Miss Vanderbilt and Harold B. Vanderbilt are abroad, but are expected home soon.

M. Desportes de la Foss, the much admired counsellor of the French Embassy, has been touring of late in the White Mounts with Mrs. and Mrs. Elsie Dyer, Jr., Max Muller, Miss Swan, Mrs. Nabholz Schenk Collins and her son, Mr. H. H. H. Astor. Mrs. Astor was particularly active socially some three seasons since, when she began at her town house in the autumn by giving a big dinner for the Duchess of Roxburghe, now the Dowager Duchess, then here for the wedding of her son with Miss Goelet.

M. Desportes de la Foss, the much admired counsellor of the French Embassy, has been touring of late in the White Mounts with Mrs. and Mrs. Elsie Dyer, Jr., Max Muller, Miss Swan, Mrs. Nabholz Schenk Collins and her son, Mr. H. H. H. Astor. Mrs. Astor was particularly active socially some three seasons since, when she began at her town house in the autumn by giving a big dinner for the Duchess of Roxburghe, now the Dowager Duchess, then here for the wedding of her son with Miss Goelet.

M. Desportes de la Foss, the much admired counsellor of the French Embassy, has been touring of late in the White Mounts with Mrs. and Mrs. Elsie Dyer, Jr., Max Muller, Miss Swan, Mrs. Nabholz Schenk Collins and her son, Mr. H. H. H. Astor. Mrs. Astor was particularly active socially some three seasons since, when she began at her town house in the autumn by giving a big dinner for the Duchess of Roxburghe, now the Dowager Duchess, then here for the wedding of her son with Miss Goelet.

M. Desportes de la Foss, the much admired counsellor of the French Embassy, has been touring of late in the White Mounts with Mrs. and Mrs. Elsie Dyer, Jr., Max Muller, Miss Swan, Mrs. Nabholz Schenk Collins and her son, Mr. H. H. H. Astor. Mrs. Astor was particularly active socially some three seasons since, when she began at her town house in the autumn by giving a big dinner for the Duchess of Roxburghe, now the Dowager Duchess, then here for the wedding of her son with Miss Goelet.

M. Desportes de la Foss, the much admired counsellor of the French Embassy, has been touring of late in the White Mounts with Mrs. and Mrs. Elsie Dyer, Jr., Max Muller, Miss Swan, Mrs. Nabholz Schenk Collins and her son, Mr. H. H. H. Astor. Mrs. Astor was particularly active socially some three seasons since, when she began at her town house in the autumn by giving a big dinner for the Duchess of Roxburghe, now the Dowager Duchess, then here for the wedding of her son with Miss Goelet.

M. Desportes de la Foss, the much admired counsellor of the French Embassy, has been touring of late in the White Mounts with Mrs. and Mrs. Elsie Dyer, Jr., Max Muller, Miss Swan, Mrs. Nabholz Schenk Collins and her son, Mr. H. H. H. Astor. Mrs. Astor was particularly active socially some three seasons since, when she began at her town house in the autumn by giving a big dinner for the Duchess of Roxburghe, now the Dowager Duchess, then here for the wedding of her son with Miss Goelet.

M. Desportes de la Foss, the much admired counsellor of the French Embassy, has been touring of late in the White Mounts with Mrs. and Mrs. Elsie Dyer, Jr., Max Muller, Miss Swan, Mrs. Nabholz Schenk Collins and her son, Mr. H. H. H. Astor. Mrs. Astor was particularly active socially some three seasons since, when she began at her town house in the autumn by giving a big dinner for the Duchess of Roxburghe, now the Dowager Duchess, then here for the wedding of her son with Miss Goelet.

M. Desportes de la Foss, the much admired counsellor of the French Embassy, has been touring of late in the White Mounts with Mrs. and Mrs. Elsie Dyer, Jr., Max Muller, Miss Swan, Mrs. Nabholz Schenk Collins and her son, Mr. H. H. H. Astor. Mrs. Astor was particularly active socially some three seasons since, when she began at her town house in the autumn by giving a big dinner for the Duchess of Roxburghe, now the Dowager Duchess, then here for the wedding of her son with Miss Goelet.

M. Desportes de la Foss, the much admired counsellor of the French Embassy, has been touring of late in the White Mounts with Mrs. and Mrs. Elsie Dyer, Jr., Max Muller, Miss Swan, Mrs. Nabholz Schenk Collins and her son, Mr. H. H. H. Astor. Mrs. Astor was particularly active socially some three seasons since, when she began at her town house in the autumn by giving a big dinner for the Duchess of Roxburghe, now the Dowager Duchess, then here for the wedding of her son with Miss Goelet.

M. Desportes de la Foss, the much admired counsellor of the French Embassy, has been touring of late in the White Mounts with Mrs. and Mrs. Elsie Dyer, Jr., Max Muller, Miss Swan, Mrs. Nabholz Schenk Collins and her son, Mr. H. H. H. Astor. Mrs. Astor was particularly active socially some three seasons since, when she began at her town house in the autumn by giving a big dinner for the Duchess of Roxburghe, now the Dowager Duchess, then here for the wedding of her son with Miss Goelet.

B. Altman & Co.

B. Altman & Co. WILL OFFER IN A FEW DAYS

FABRICS FOR DRAPERIES, FURNITURE COVERINGS,

WALL HANGINGS, ETC.

AT EXCEEDINGLY LOW PRICES.

OF WHICH DUE NOTICE WILL BE GIVEN.

SPECIAL SALE OF EVENING SILKS

Commencing Monday, September 24.

9,000 yards of Pompadour Crepe de Chine, 23 inches wide, in a variety of choice designs, regular price $1.25.

(Rear of Rotunda, First Floor.) at 62c per yard.

ORIENTAL, EUROPEAN AND AMERICAN RUGS.

Inspection is invited of the new designs in American Rugs which are now being shown, in addition to the usual large selection of Oriental